

Emergency Preparedness A Focus on Seniors

Thursday, June 7, 2007
from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m.

James Lee Community Center
2855-A Annandale Road, Falls Church

Center's phone number is 703-534-3387, TTY 711

This program will focus on shelter in place emergency preparedness with a focus on seniors in our communities. The first part of the program will be conducted by the National Area Red Cross Chapter and will demonstrate to participants on how to put together a shelter in place emergency kit. The second part of the program will host speakers from the Office of Emergency Management and the Health Department on staying prepared, what to be alert of in the case of an emergency and what the county is doing to keep Fairfax County prepared.

This event is being sponsored by the Fairfax County Federation of Citizen's Association in partnership with the offices of the following members of the Fairfax County Board of Supervisors: Chairman Gerry Connolly, Sharon Bulova (Braddock District), Penny Gross (Mason District), Linda Smyth (Providence District), and Elaine McConnell (Springfield District), Fairfax County Office of Emergency Management, Health Department, Area Agency on Aging, Senior Centers, the James Lee Community Center; and the National Area Chapter of the Red Cross.

Light lunch will be provided. This program is free and open to the public and all residents are welcomed to attend. For more information and to request reasonable ADA accommodations, please contact Tania Hossain, Federation Human Services Committee Co-chair, at 703-560-6946, TTY 711. More information about the Fairfax County Federation of Citizen's Association is available on the Federation's Web site at www.fairfaxfederation.org.
